

A Parting Kick ....

We have left on our
'BARCAIN TALBE

135 prs. Ladies' low Shoes, in blacks and tans, hardly any two pairs alike, sizes 11-2 to 3's, prices $1.25 to $3, mostly pointed toes and narrow widths.

175 prs. Children's and Misses Strap Sandals and Lace Oxfords, blacks and Tans, sizes 5's to 2's, prices 75c to $1.50. To make quick work we will offer

Choice of these two lots at 50c a Pair.

THEY WILL BE PLACED ON SALE

Friday Morning, Sept. 1.

No take back and no exchange.

J. H. Anderson & Co.

REDUCED TO—

$2.00

ALL OF OUR

Men's Vici Kid

$2.50 Shoes

ARE NOW GOING AT

$2.00.

This includes all styles BLACKS or TANS. All new fresh goods.

REMEMBER

Just $2.

PETREE & CO.

JUDGE PENDLETON

Passes Away After a Long Illness.

Brief Sketch of the Career of the City Judge—The Funeral This Afternoon.

City Judge C. N. Pendleton died last night about 9 o'clock at his residence on Locust street, of cancer. He has been in bad health for the past year, and confined to his bed for two months.

Judge Pendleton was born in Christian county, February 19, 1831, where he attended school the early part of life and completed his education at Georgetown and Centre colleges. He then studied law at Elkton, Ky., in the office of F. M. Bristow. When he was licensed to practice, he formed a partnership with Judges Graham and Stites. Afterward he moved to Logan county and was twice elected county attorney. In 1875 he ran against Polk Lafoon for state senator of the Sixth district and beat him for the Democratic nomination. Judge Clifton J. Pratt received the Republican nomination and was beaten by Judge Pendleton.

He was in the Confederate army and a captain in Woodward's brigade of Kentucky cavalry, that was under command of Gen. Forrest during most of the war.

Judge Pendleton came to Owensboro in 1884 as a clerk under the first Cleveland administration with Hunter Wood, the collector. When his term of office expired, he again took up the practice of law and was elected city attorney, and afterward city judge, which office he held two terms and died when his third term was half completed.

He was a brother of the eminent author and Baptist divine, James M. Pendleton, of Russellville, who died a few years ago. His wife, who was Miss Ella Garvin, survives him, also five children, of whom Mrs. Mary P. Olmstead, of New York; Mrs. Nevy Powers, of Las Vegas, N. M.; Dr. Edward Pendleton, of Denver, Col.; Miss Florence Pendleton, and James Pendleton, who live in this city. Dr. Edward Pendleton has been in attendance at his father's bedside for some time.

Judge Pendleton was a man of jovial disposition, with a large fund of information on all subjects and a pleasant companion. He was popular with all classes.—Owensboro Messenger.

MR. ALLENSWORTH DECLINES

Professional Engagements Will Not Permit Him To Run.

MESSRS. ED. R. BOGARD, FRANK BOYD, AND OTHERS:

GENTLEMEN:—Profoundly moved by your confidence, expressed in the communication addressed to me over your signatures, and published in the issue of the KENTUCKIAN for the 29th instant, calling me to become a candidate for Representative from this county in the next General Assembly, after serious and thoughtful consideration I am constrained to decline a call, which, were it possible under the circumstances for me to do so, I would gladly accept, in order that I might have the opportunity to serve my county and state, and to prove to you that your confidence, so flatteringly expressed, has not been misplaced. To give in detail my reasons for declining is not needful. It is sufficient to say, that my professional engagements, previously made and now current, will imperatively demand the time and attention that would necessarily be diverted to my candidacy during the period before the election, should I consent to make the race, and my obligations growing out of these engagements I can not conscientiously disregard. But, I take the occasion to add, that, while I shall not be a candidate for office, I recognize the great importance of the pending contest for the political control of the State government. I shall not be an idle spectator of the conflict, but shall do all that I can honorably do, in my sphere, to accomplish success and to vindicate the authority of the Democratic party at the coming election.

Thanking you, one and all, as well as many other good and true men, for this honoring me, I am,
Your obedient Servant,
JAS. B. ALLENSWORTH.

INTERESTING SESSION.

At Logan Presbytery Held at Fairview This Week.

The Logan Presbytery closed an interesting session of two days at New Gashen Church, Fairview, Wednesday. There were about forty ministers present, representing all of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of the state west of Louisville. In the absence of the Moderator Dr. M. B. DeWitt, of this city, preached the opening sermon Tuesday. Tremendous crowds were in attendance both days and there was dinner in abundance to feed the mighty throng. Six young candidates for license to preach read their trial sermons and were passed upon favorably. Dr. J. M. Gill, of Elkton, was chosen Moderator for the ensuing year. The session proved a most interesting one in every respect.

PRIMARY ELECTION.

City Committee Decides To Nominate at Once.

The City Democratic Committee, composed of George E. Gary, George G. Bradley, Frank H. Bassett and Frank Rives, met one day this week and decided to hold an old fashioned primary election. The date will be agreed upon at another meeting to be held probably to-day. It will be either the 8th or 15th. The polls will be open in all wards except the Fifth, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4 p. m. All known democrats will be qualified to vote.

LADIES LITERARY CLUB.

Reorganized And Regular Meetings Will Be Resumed

The Wednesday Afternoon Literary Club has been reorganized for the winter season, with the addition of several new members. Mrs. A. S. Edmunds was re-elected President. The club will this year take up the study of American authors and history. The first meeting will be held next Wednesday when Christopher Columbus will be the central figure of the program.

MRS. ANNIE F. CRICK.

Institutes Suit For Divorce From Her Husband.

Mrs. Annie F. Crick vs. W. E. Crick, is the style of a suit filed with the Circuit Clerk Tuesday. Plaintiff asks for a divorce from her husband and the custody of her child. Cruelty and inhuman treatment is alleged. The couple were married in January 1891, and lived together, the petition states, until December, 1895. They reside near Red Hill, in Northeast Christian.

RIGHT ABOUT IT.

A Republican Leader Concedes Goebel's Election.

Paris, Ky., Aug. 30.—A prominent, influential and well-posted Republican of this city, who will not permit his name to be used, concedes the election of Goebel by 20,000 majority. He further stated that in his opinion Senator Goebel is now being persecuted and that he is very strongly inclined to vote for Goebel.

Mrs. J. W. Williams has returned from a visit to relatives in Pembroke.

BANKS SETTLE UP.

Fiscal Court Accepts a Compromise Proposition.

They Will Pay $7,000 in Cash And Transfer Excess Claims Against the State.

The Fiscal Court held a called session Wednesday and accepted the compromise proposition of the banks in settlement of the back taxes that have been the subject of prolonged litigation. The city not long ago settle with the banks but the county refused to compromise. The taxes due for five years up to and including 1897 amounted to the following figures:

Bank of Hopkinsville.....$6,566.00
City Bank.....3,365.81
Planters Bank.....2,046.72
Pembroke Deposit Bank.....851.59

Total.....$12,831.11

The First National Bank is not liable under a late decision of the Supreme Court.

The four banks offered to pay $7,000 cash and transfer to the county their excess claims against the state for $5,492.11. These claims grew out of the payment of 75 cents under the Hewitt law when according to the later decision the state was entitled to only 47 1/2 cents. This difference the banks are seeking to recover and these claims the county has accepted in the settlement.

Six of the justices voted for the settlement and two against it. Those voting in the negative were S. G. Buckner and B. F. Fuller.

AT CADIZ MONDAY.

There May Be a Clash Between Rival Orators.

The Democratic Campaign Committee has announced an appointment for Col. W. R. Howell at Cadiz next Monday, at the opening of Circuit Court.

The Brownie committee has also announced appointments at Cadiz at the same hour for Hal Corbett and Judge Ed. Kelly.

HOLINESS MEETING.

Annual Camp Meeting Commenced There on Yesterday.

The annual Holiness camp meeting began yesterday at Cabossa camp grounds, near Harmony, Todd county, and will continue ten days. The series of meetings will be conducted by Rev. Aura Smith and wife, assisted by other ministers from this state and Tennessee. There will be five services during each day and preparations have been made to accommodate the usual large crowds that attend these meetings every year. Low rates have been secured on the railroads and many from a distance are expected to be on hand. Visitors who go by rail will get off the cars at Gill station, which is only a short distance from the camp grounds. Mr. F. M. Pierce, wife and grandson and Mrs. W. N. Ducker and daughter, Miss Jennie, left yesterday for the meeting and Mr. Geo. R. Pierce, son Charles, and several from this city went over this morning.

SNOW AND FROST.

Not Among The Improbabilities During The Month.

The following gleanings are from Rev. Irl R. Hicks' weather forecasts for September:

The first storm period for September lies between the 2nd and 7th. Look for equatorial hurricanes in the extreme south, followed by much cooler weather. From 9th to 13th high temperature and electrical storms. Danger of frost from the Northwest following up this period.

Very warm weather will prevail over the continent from 15th to 20th, accompanied by storms and heavy gales from the Northwest, with probably snow and frost in more northerly sections latter part of the period. Unsettled, threatening weather from 21st to 24th. From the 25th to the end of the month decided storm conditions will develop and run their usual course from west to east across the continent. Some sleet may be looked for in northern sections as the month nears its close.

CORN CRIB

Struck by Lightning and a Farmer Was Cremated.

Charles Hale, a farmer living near Kirkmansville, was at work in his corn crib last Saturday, when it was struck by lightning. The electricity stunned Mr. Hale and at the same time set fire to and consumed the structure, which contained 50 barrels of corn. His wife, who was a few yards away, at the residence, seeing the crib on fire and knowing her husband was therein, ran at once to his relief and by almost superhuman efforts succeeded in pulling his body out of the flames. When rescued he was still alive but practically burned to a crisp. He only lived a few hours.

Children Marry.

Franklin, Aug., 27.—Charles Ervin and Miss Lucy Crenshaw were married by Rev. James Marshall at his home on Cummings street, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. It was a runaway affair. The groom is 16 of age and the bride 15.

The Church Hill school did not open last Monday as stated, but will begin Monday Sept. 4.

Geo. W. Young

Stoves and Ranges, Tinware,

Woodenware, Queensware, Roofing,

Guttering, Cornice Work, Pumps

and a general line of House Furnishings.

Will repair roofs, gutters, Tinware, Stoves, etc., on short notice. Come and see how well we are fixed to care for your wants. We want especially to show you this fall the

"Radiant Home" Air Blast,

the greatest triumph ever sold here in the way of a heating stove. Burns anything from slack coal up and saves its cost every year.

Main Street, Opp. Opera House,

HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

KENTUCKY CONTEST.

A Tennessee View of the Worth of Standard-Bearer Goebel.

Another deep-laid plan of the Kentucky leaders has come to light. The end of their strenuous effort to allocate the influence of Mr. Bryan from the support of Mr. Goebel comes in a warm and widely disseminated endorsement of his candidacy. Thus have his foes, through the very bitterness of their opposition, contributed signally to the success of the Democratic nominee.

It would be strange, indeed, if these enemies of William Goebel had left a stone unturned in their efforts to defeat him. They have camped upon his political trail from the day the Democrats of Kentucky county determined to send him to the state senate. There has been no truce of arms, no truce of treachery too deep to serve their purposes. They know him; they have felt the strength of his arm; they justly fear the consequences to them of his election as governor of Kentucky.

In the short space of 40 years William Goebel has risen from the humblest poverty to a position commanding the widest love and respect of the people of a great commonwealth can know. He has built up the largest law practice, the most loyal palanquin of friends, and above all, the most highly creditable record in the history of any man in Kentucky can boast.

He has gained these things by unflinching loyalty and sturdy blows. From the moment his first candidacy was announced, those corporate interests of Kentucky county that were accustomed to further their ends by political corruption, knew they had a fresh and resolute foe to vanquish. Before they had set in the legislature for a week their allies of the rest of the state knew that their victims had gained a champion who fought a four-rounder.

To the death the struggle has been waged from that day to this. William Goebel gives and asks no quarter. If it is possible for that corporate and private wealth, which makes the corruption of legislators and executives a part of its business, to compass his defeat this fall it will be done. If he is elected, there are representatives of malign influences who so regularly rendezvous there, that will tremble when they again approach the state house.

And he will be elected. The people who carried him to the Louisville convention will sweep him to a yet grander one in November. They know that he is for public interest against private greed, and stand too boldly for the gates of political corruption to prevail against him.

In all Kentucky there is no man so venerable, none so respected as Chief Justice William Pryor. For more than a quarter of a century his name has stood a synonym for all that is wise, incorruptible, unapproachable. When the deadlock in the Louisville convention seemed to threaten the party the eyes of many turned to the honored chief justice as one who would save the day. He was asked to allow the use of his name for that purpose. His declaration was an answer as it was emphatic. "I am for Senator Goebel," he said. "I know him, and therefore I am for him. I know him as I see him governor than as governor myself. Such a man is needed in Kentucky today."

The words of this discerning judge voiced the sentiment of all that is best among the people of our sister state. There are enough men who think as he does to make William Goebel Kentucky's next governor. Keep your eyes on the November election returns if you doubt it.—Chattanooga News.

STONE'S APPEAL.

Kentucky Democrats Should Put All Personal Differences Aside.

Henderson Gleason.

The following letter of ex-Governor William J. Stone in discount of the situation in Kentucky is second in interest only to the recent letter of Mr. Bryan, who not only endorsed the platform and action of the Kentucky Democratic convention, but gave a strong personal endorsement to Mr. Goebel from his knowledge of the party and public record of the man. Governor Stone is the vice chairman and acting chairman of the Democratic national committee, and is one of the best known men in the country. His letter possesses peculiar interest at this time:

St. Louis, Aug. 2, 1898.
Hon. Urey Woodson, Owensboro, Ky.:
Dear Mr. Woodson:—I have your favor of the 27th ult. It is entirely clear to me that Kentucky Democrats should lay aside mere party considerations and strive to elect the ticket nominated at Louisville. I have no doubt that many good Democrats were disappointed at the result of that convention, and I have no doubt many feel that the convention was conducted with that degree of order and decorum which should characterize the proceedings of such a body. I am sure that the proceedings of large bodies, like the convention at Louisville, are characterized more or less by disorder and seeming unfairness, especially when personal rivalry becomes intense.

It would be strange, indeed, if these enemies of William Goebel had left a stone unturned in their efforts to defeat him. They have camped upon his political trail from the day the Democrats of Kentucky county determined to send him to the state senate. There has been no truce of arms, no truce of treachery too deep to serve their purposes. They know him; they have felt the strength of his arm; they justly fear the consequences to them of his election as governor of Kentucky.

In the short space of 40 years William Goebel has risen from the humblest poverty to a position commanding the widest love and respect of the people of a great commonwealth can know. He has built up the largest law practice, the most loyal palanquin of friends, and above all, the most highly creditable record in the history of any man in Kentucky can boast.

He has gained these things by unflinching loyalty and sturdy blows. From the moment his first candidacy was announced, those corporate interests of Kentucky county that were accustomed to further their ends by political corruption, knew they had a fresh and resolute foe to vanquish. Before they had set in the legislature for a week their allies of the rest of the state knew that their victims had gained a champion who fought a four-rounder.

To the death the struggle has been waged from that day to this. William Goebel gives and asks no quarter. If it is possible for that corporate and private wealth, which makes the corruption of legislators and executives a part of its business, to compass his defeat this fall it will be done. If he is elected, there are representatives of malign influences who so regularly rendezvous there, that will tremble when they again approach the state house.

And he will be elected. The people who carried him to the Louisville convention will sweep him to a yet grander one in November. They know that he is for public interest against private greed, and stand too boldly for the gates of political corruption to prevail against him.

In all Kentucky there is no man so venerable, none so respected as Chief Justice William Pryor. For more than a quarter of a century his name has stood a synonym for all that is wise, incorruptible, unapproachable. When the deadlock in the Louisville convention seemed to threaten the party the eyes of many turned to the honored chief justice as one who would save the day. He was asked to allow the use of his name for that purpose. His declaration was an answer as it was emphatic. "I am for Senator Goebel," he said. "I know him, and therefore I am for him. I know him as I see him governor than as governor myself. Such a man is needed in Kentucky today."

The words of this discerning judge voiced the sentiment of all that is best among the people of our sister state. There are enough men who think as he does to make William Goebel Kentucky's next governor. Keep your eyes on the November election returns if you doubt it.—Chattanooga News.

STONE'S APPEAL.

Kentucky Democrats Should Put All Personal Differences Aside.

teme. But after all it rarely happens that it becomes a matter of supreme importance whether one candidate or another for party honors is successful. I believe the state of Kentucky would be safe in the hands of either of the distinguished gentlemen who sought the nomination of the party. While the party friends of the different candidates naturally would feel a deep interest in the success of their favorite, the candidate after all is a matter of secondary importance. What the Democracy of Kentucky and of the nation is most interested in is success at the polls. The loss of Kentucky at this time would be a serious blow to the party in the nation. It requires no argument to prove that statement true. The truth and the importance of the statement are alike self-evident. Therefore, I say that the Democrats of Kentucky should put aside all personal differences for the time being and rally as one man to redeem the state and to again send in the Democratic column.

So far as I can be of service to you I will be. Proud of my native state, and loving her people as I do, I can contemplate with any degree of patience the possibility of defeat at the ensuing election. Very truly yours,

WILLIAM J. STONE.

Soul of Honor.
When the late Governor John W. Stevenson placed the property of his wife and daughter in the hands of William Goebel as trustee, without bond, was one of the very strongest proofs of the latter's worth as a man that one man could give another. Governor Stevenson, as everyone knows, was one of the ablest and best men in the state. When he was an old man, Senator Goebel, then a boy, had the study of law with Governor Stevenson. His success in his practice was phenomenal. He had been taken in the firm, and his office door still bears the old sign, "Stevenson & Goebel."

Governor Stevenson, always a prudent man, made a will, and by its terms placed the property of his wife and child in the hands of William Goebel, as trustee, the will specifically stating that he was not to give bond. The property consisting of $250,000, or more, is still in the hands of Senator Goebel. What greater proof can be given of a man's worth than to have entrusted to him the property of one of the ablest and best men in the state? Governor Stevenson is unparalleled in the record of any other man of his time. He was a man of great ability, and better, Goebel is still the trustee of Mrs. Stevenson—Bracken County.

Figure of Jackson.

Senator Goebel resembles Andy Jackson more than any other man in the state. He is as vigorous as Chief Justice William Pryor. For more than a quarter of a century his name has stood a synonym for all that is wise, incorruptible, unapproachable. When the deadlock in the Louisville convention seemed to threaten the party the eyes of many turned to the honored chief justice as one who would save the day. He was asked to allow the use of his name for that purpose. His declaration was an answer as it was emphatic. "I am for Senator Goebel," he said. "I know him, and therefore I am for him. I know him as I see him governor than as governor myself. Such a man is needed in Kentucky today."

The words of this discerning judge voiced the sentiment of all that is best among the people of our sister state. There are enough men who think as he does to make William Goebel Kentucky's next governor. Keep your eyes on the November election returns if you doubt it.—Chattanooga News.

STONE'S APPEAL.

Kentucky Democrats Should Put All Personal Differences Aside.

Henderson Gleason.

The following letter of ex-Governor William J. Stone in discount of the situation in Kentucky is second in interest only to the recent letter of Mr. Bryan, who not only endorsed the platform and action of the Kentucky Democratic convention, but gave a strong personal endorsement to Mr. Goebel from his knowledge of the party and public record of the man. Governor Stone is the vice chairman and acting chairman of the Democratic national committee, and is one of the best known men in the country. His letter possesses peculiar interest at this time:

St. Louis, Aug. 2, 1898.
Hon. Urey Woodson, Owensboro, Ky.:
Dear Mr. Woodson:—I have your favor of the 27th ult. It is entirely clear to me that Kentucky Democrats should lay aside mere party considerations and strive to elect the ticket nominated at Louisville. I have no doubt that many good Democrats were disappointed at the result of that convention, and I have no doubt many feel that the convention was conducted with that degree of order and decorum which should characterize the proceedings of such a body. I am sure that the proceedings of large bodies, like the convention at Louisville, are characterized more or less by disorder and seeming unfairness, especially when personal rivalry becomes intense.

It would be strange, indeed, if these enemies of William Goebel had left a stone unturned in their efforts to defeat him. They have camped upon his political trail from the day the Democrats of Kentucky county determined to send him to the state senate. There has been no truce of arms, no truce of treachery too deep to serve their purposes. They know him; they have felt the strength of his arm; they justly fear the consequences to them of his election as governor of Kentucky.

In the short space of 40 years William Goebel has risen from the humblest poverty to a position commanding the widest love and respect of the people of a great commonwealth can know. He has built up the largest law practice, the most loyal palanquin of friends, and above all, the most highly creditable record in the history of any man in Kentucky can boast.

He has gained these things by unflinching loyalty and sturdy blows. From the moment his first candidacy was announced, those corporate interests of Kentucky county that were accustomed to further their ends by political corruption, knew they had a fresh and resolute foe to vanquish. Before they had set in the legislature for a week their allies of the rest of the state knew that their victims had gained a champion who fought a four-rounder.

To the death the struggle has been waged from that day to this. William Goebel gives and asks no quarter. If it is possible for that corporate and private wealth, which makes the corruption of legislators and executives a part of its business, to compass his defeat this fall it will be done. If he is elected, there are representatives of malign influences who so regularly rendezvous there, that will tremble when they again approach the state house.

And he will be elected. The people who carried him to the Louisville convention will sweep him to a yet grander one in November. They know that he is for public interest against private greed, and stand too boldly for the gates of political corruption to prevail against him.

In all Kentucky there is no man so venerable, none so respected as Chief Justice William Pryor. For more than a quarter of a century his name has stood a synonym for all that is wise, incorruptible, unapproachable. When the deadlock in the Louisville convention seemed to threaten the party the eyes of many turned to the honored chief justice as one who would save the day. He was asked to allow the use of his name for that purpose. His declaration was an answer as it was emphatic. "I am for Senator Goebel," he said. "I know him, and therefore I am for him. I know him as I see him governor than as governor myself. Such a man is needed in Kentucky today."

The words of this discerning judge voiced the sentiment of all that is best among the people of our sister state. There are enough men who think as he does to make William Goebel Kentucky's next governor. Keep your eyes on the November election returns if you doubt it.—Chattanooga News.

STONE'S APPEAL.

Kentucky Democrats Should Put All Personal Differences Aside.

teme. But after all it rarely happens that it becomes a matter of supreme importance whether one candidate or another for party honors is successful. I believe the state of Kentucky would be safe in the hands of either of the distinguished gentlemen who sought the nomination of the party. While the party friends of the different candidates naturally would feel a deep interest in the success of their favorite, the candidate after all is a matter of secondary importance. What the Democracy of Kentucky and of the nation is most interested in is success at the polls. The loss of Kentucky at this time would be a serious blow to the party in the nation. It requires no argument to prove that statement true. The truth and the importance of the statement are alike self-evident. Therefore, I say that the Democrats of Kentucky should put aside all personal differences for the time being and rally as one man to redeem the state and to again send in the Democratic column.

So far as I can be of service to you I will be. Proud of my native state, and loving her people as I do, I can contemplate with any degree of patience the possibility of defeat at the ensuing election. Very truly yours,

WILLIAM J. STONE.

Soul of Honor.
When the late Governor John W. Stevenson placed the property of his wife and daughter in the hands of William Goebel as trustee, without bond, was one of the very strongest proofs of the latter's worth as a man that one man could give another. Governor Stevenson, as everyone knows, was one of the ablest and best men in the state. When he was an old man, Senator Goebel, then a boy, had the study of law with Governor Stevenson. His success in his practice was phenomenal. He had been taken in the firm, and his office door still bears the old sign, "Stevenson & Goebel."

Governor Stevenson, always a prudent man, made a will, and by its terms placed the property of his wife and child in the hands of William Goebel, as trustee, the will specifically stating that he was not to give bond. The property consisting of $250,000, or more, is still in the hands of Senator Goebel. What greater proof can be given of a man's worth than to have entrusted to him the property of one of the ablest and best men in the state? Governor Stevenson is unparalleled in the record of any other man of his time. He was a man of great ability, and better, Goebel is still the trustee of Mrs. Stevenson—Bracken County.

Figure of Jackson.

Senator Goebel resembles Andy Jackson more than any other man in the state. He is as vigorous as Chief Justice William Pryor. For more than a quarter of a century his name has stood a synonym for all that is wise, incorruptible, unapproachable. When the deadlock in the Louisville convention seemed to threaten the party the eyes of many turned to the honored chief justice as one who would save the day. He was asked to allow the use of his name for that purpose. His declaration was an answer as it was emphatic. "I am for Senator Goebel," he said. "I know him, and therefore I am for him. I know him as I see him governor than as governor myself. Such a man is needed in Kentucky today."

The words of this discerning judge voiced the sentiment of all that is best among the people of our sister state. There are enough men who think as he does to make William Goebel Kentucky's next governor. Keep your eyes on the November election returns if you doubt it.—Chattanooga News.

STONE'S APPEAL.

Kentucky Democrats Should Put All Personal Differences Aside.

Henderson Gleason.

The following letter of ex-Governor William J. Stone in discount of the situation in Kentucky is second in interest only to the recent letter of Mr. Bryan, who not only endorsed the platform and action of the Kentucky Democratic convention, but gave a strong personal endorsement to Mr. Goebel from his knowledge of the party and public record of the man. Governor Stone is the vice chairman and acting chairman of the Democratic national committee, and is one of the best known men in the country. His letter possesses peculiar interest at this time:

St. Louis, Aug. 2, 1898.
Hon. Urey Woodson, Owensboro, Ky.:
Dear Mr. Woodson:—I have your favor of the 27th ult. It is entirely clear to me that Kentucky Democrats should lay aside mere party considerations and strive to elect the ticket nominated at Louisville. I have no doubt that many good Democrats were disappointed at the result of that convention, and I have no doubt many feel that the convention was conducted with that degree of order and decorum which should characterize the proceedings of such a body. I am sure that the proceedings of large bodies, like the convention at Louisville, are characterized more or less by disorder and seeming unfairness, especially when personal rivalry becomes intense.

It would be strange, indeed, if these enemies of William Goebel had left a stone unturned in their efforts to defeat him. They have camped upon his political trail from the day the Democrats of Kentucky county determined to send him to the state senate. There has been no truce of arms, no truce of treachery too deep to serve their purposes. They know him; they have felt the strength of his arm; they justly fear the consequences to them of his election as governor of Kentucky.

In the short space of 40 years William Goebel has risen from the humblest poverty to a position commanding the widest love and respect of the people of a great commonwealth can know. He has built up the largest law practice, the most loyal palanquin of friends, and above all, the most highly creditable record in the history of any man in Kentucky can boast.

He has gained these things by unflinching loyalty and sturdy blows. From the moment his first candidacy was announced, those corporate interests of Kentucky county that were accustomed to further their ends by political corruption, knew they had a fresh and resolute foe to vanquish. Before they had set in the legislature for a week their allies of the rest of the state knew that their victims had gained a champion who fought a four-rounder.

To the death the struggle has been waged from that day to this. William Goebel gives and asks no quarter. If it is possible for that corporate and private wealth, which makes the corruption of legislators and executives a part of its business, to compass his defeat this fall it will be done. If he is elected, there are representatives of malign influences who so regularly rendezvous there, that will tremble when they again approach the state house.

And he will be elected. The people who carried him to the Louisville convention will sweep him to a yet grander one in November. They know that he is for public interest against private greed, and stand too boldly for the gates of political corruption to prevail against him.

In all Kentucky there is no man so venerable, none so respected as Chief Justice William Pryor. For more than a quarter of a century his name has stood a synonym for all that is wise, incorruptible, unapproachable. When the deadlock in the Louisville convention seemed to threaten the party the eyes of many turned to the honored chief justice as one who would save the day. He was asked to allow the use of his name for that purpose. His declaration was an answer as it was emphatic. "I am for Senator Goebel," he said. "I know him, and therefore I am for him. I know him as I see him governor than as governor myself. Such a man is needed in Kentucky today."

The words of this discerning judge voiced the sentiment of all that is best among the people of our sister state. There are enough men who think as he does to make William Goebel Kentucky's next governor. Keep your eyes on the November election returns if you doubt it.—Chattanooga News.

STONE'S APPEAL.

Kentucky Democrats Should Put All Personal Differences Aside.

Henderson Gleason.

The following letter of ex-Governor William J. Stone in discount of the situation in Kentucky is second in interest only to the recent letter of Mr. Bryan, who not only endorsed the platform and action of the Kentucky Democratic convention, but gave a strong personal endorsement to Mr. Goebel from his knowledge of the party and public record of the man. Governor Stone is the vice chairman and acting chairman of the Democratic national committee, and is one of the best known men in the country. His letter possesses peculiar interest at this time:

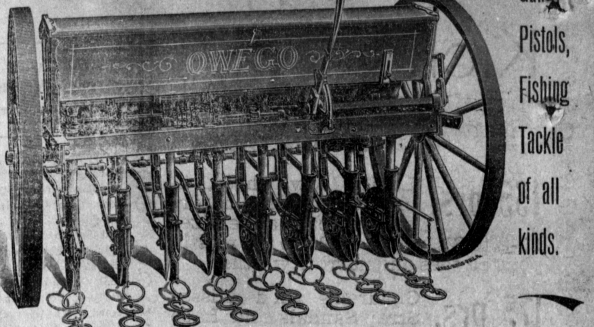

St. Louis, Aug. 2, 1898.
Hon. Urey Woodson, Owensboro, Ky.:
Dear Mr. Woodson:—I have your favor of the 27th ult. It is entirely clear to me that Kentucky Democrats should lay aside mere party considerations and strive to elect the ticket nominated at Louisville. I have no doubt that many good Democrats were disappointed at the result of that convention, and I have no doubt many feel that the convention was conducted with that degree of order and decorum which should characterize the proceedings of such a body. I am sure that the proceedings of large bodies, like the convention at Louisville, are characterized more or less by disorder and seeming unfairness, especially when personal rivalry becomes intense.

It would be strange, indeed, if these enemies of William Goebel had left a stone unturned in their efforts to defeat him. They have camped upon his political trail from the day the Democrats of Kentucky county determined to send him to the state senate. There has been no truce of arms, no truce of treachery too deep to serve their purposes. They know him; they have felt the strength of his arm; they justly fear the consequences to them of his election as governor of Kentucky.

O-W-E-G-O

Hoosier and Kentucky Disc and Hoe Improved Wheat Drills.

Old Hickory Wagons, Surreys, Phaetons, Buggies, Farming Implements,

Hardware Guns, Pistols, Fishing Tackle of all kinds.

Gus Young.

Celebrated Ox Brand, High Grade Blood, Bone and Potash FERTILIZERS for all crops. TANDY & YOUNG.

W. E. WOOD, A. M., M. D., President Chicago Medical and Surgical Institute, 617 LaSalle Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Established in Chicago over twenty years. Regularly chartered under act of Illinois Legislature. Capital (fully paid) $100,000. The oldest, largest, most reliable and successful Medical Institute in the U. S.

Private rooms for patients with facilities for any emergency. X-Ray, Microscopic and Urinal. Examinations are made in all cases whenever diagnosis is doubtful. Write for Free Book on Deformities and Diseases of the Neck, Head, Throat, Lungs, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Cancer, Tumors, Piles, Pains, Epilepsy, Kidney, Bladder, Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Diseases, and all Surgical Operations. Best facilities apparatus and remedies for the successful treatment of all cases of Chronic Diseases.

We absolutely guarantee to cure every case of Nervous Debility and diseases resulting from abuse and indulgence of Youth and Manhood: Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness (night losses and vital drains in urine), Impotency, Varicocele, Hydrocele, Stricture, Phimosis, etc., etc. Charges reasonable. No incurable cases accepted.

To "C. O. D." or "deposit" schemes. Patients are unknown to us; 100,000 testimonials letters on file from cured patients. Many cured at home. Constitution free and confidential, personally or by letter. Write us to-day. 100-page Book on all Chronic and Surgical Diseases and list of 130 questions sent free.

A Physician
Can Prescribe
Dr. Otto's Spruce Gum Balsam.

Formula on each package.
CURES YOUR COUGH IN A DAY

Price, 25 & 50c.

F. & Fowler

KIDNEY DISEASES

are the most fatal of all diseases. FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE is a GUARANTEED remedy or money refunded. Contains remedies recognized by all eminent physicians as the best for Kidney and Bladder troubles.

Price 50c. and $1.00.
For sale by Anderson & Fowler.

W. W. GRAY: TONSORIAL ARTISTS.

WEST SEVENTH STREET, LEAD BUILDING.

Clean towels and everything fit to give us a call.

The STATE COLLEGE OF KENTUCKY Offers the Following Courses.

Agricultural, Mechanical Engineering, Civil Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, Classical, Normal School, and Fire Scientific Courses, each of which covers four years in the College proper and leads to a degree.

Its Faculty contains twenty nine professors, its grounds, buildings and equipment represent $400,000 in value. Its laboratories, Chemical, Physical, Biological, Botanical, Geological, Physiological, Mechanical and Electrical are the largest and best in Kentucky.

Each Legislative District is entitled by law to free tuition, room rent, fuel and lights for four properly prepared students in the college proper, and to an equal number in the Normal Department, all to be appointed by the County Superintendent. Alumni of the State College of Kentucky are entered in post-graduate course. Entrance examinations September 11, 12 and 13. For catalogue and other information apply to:

Jas. K. Patterson, Ph. D., L. L. D.,

PRESIDENT,

Lexington, Ky.

SESSION BEGINS SEPTEMBER 14.

Real Estate For Sale.

House and lot on South side West Seventh street $23,000.
Two story brick, seven rooms all modern improvements, on West Seventh street and Cleveland Avenue.
One-story frame, seven rooms on West Seventh street.

One story frame, three rooms corner on Howe street.

Lot on North side West Seventh 621x269.

Lot on O'Neal Avenue 60x180.

Lot on O'Neal Avenue 60x125.

Three lots on South side West 7th street 500x200.

17 lots on Young street 50x150.

200 acre farm on Butterfield Road 34 miles from Hopkinsville, Ky.

Terms to suit purchaser.

New eight-room house and lot on Elm street. Terms one-third cash, balance in one and two years.

Brick veneered house six rooms, 88x268 1/2 corner Virginia and 18 Sts.

One-third cash, balance in one and two years.

Two vacant lots, and three houses and lots in Gracely.

Apply to

ECCLESIAN & COMPANY, Webb Block.

CHAS. R. LEWIS.

Brick, Encaustic Tile, Artificial Stone

CONTRACTOR.

All kinds of Brick Work, Tile Hearths, Encaustics, Floors, Etc. Stone Fireplaces, Stoves, Steps, Sills, Etc.

All kinds of Job Work in my line properly and promptly attended to such as Grates, Pipes, and Chimneys.

OLD BANK BUILDING.

Telephone 129-3, Hopkinsville, Ky.

CLARENCE HARRIS

(Formerly with Forbes & Bro.)

PAINTER and PAPER HANGER.

Paper hanging a specialty. All work guaranteed.

Leave orders at Gus Young's.

Telephone 84-2 rings

SEBREE SPRINGS.

The celebrated Chalybeate Springs Hotel located one-half mile south of Sebree on L. & N. R., is now open and is receiving guests. This hotel will be run hereafter by Mr. G. L. Dial and wife.

Mr. Dial has opened up a new Chalybeate springs within a few steps of his door, that stands 8 feet 3 inches in water clear as crystal and is said by many to be stronger and better water than his old spring.

Mr. Dial will be pleased to see as many of his old friends and new ones at his splendid summer resort as possible, and guarantees to all good grub and a good time.

Rates from $5 to $7 per week, according to number in room. Children under ten half price.

Cottage rooms for rent in Springs lot. Address all communications to

G. L. Dial.

Telephone No. 32.

GRAVES

MAKES CHILDREN AS FAT AS PIGS.

TASTELESS CHILL TONIC

IS JUST AS GOOD FOR ADULTS. NO CURE NO PAY

Price 50c. and $1.00.

For sale by Anderson & Fowler.

W. W. GRAY: TONSORIAL ARTISTS.

WEST SEVENTH STREET, LEAD BUILDING.

Clean towels and everything fit to give us a call.

Does Your Head Ache?

Are your nerves weak? Can you sleep well? Pain in your back? Lack of energy? Appetite poor? Digestion bad? Bloating? Stomach? These are some of the results of constipation. If the contents of the bowels are not removed from the body, such substances are sure to be absorbed into the blood, always causing suffering and frequently causing severe disease. There is a common-sense cure.

Ayer's PILLS

They daily insure an easy and natural movement of the bowels. Ayer's Sarsaparilla with the pills will hasten recovery. Write the doctor just how you are suffering. You will receive the best medical advice without cost. Drs. J. C. & W. A. Lowell, Mass.

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

Published Tuesday and Friday Mornings

CHAS. M. MEACHAM.

SUBSCRIPTION $2 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Local reading notices 20 cents per line. Special local notices 10 cents each insertion. Rates for standing advertisements furnished on application.

OFFICE 218 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

—FRIDAY, SEPT. 1, 1899—

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Governor,
WILLIAM GOEBEL,
of Kenton.

For Lieutenant Governor,
J. C. W. BECKHAM, of Nelson.

For Attorney General,
ROBT. J. BRECKINRIDGE, of Boyle.

For Auditor,
GUS G. COULTER, of Graves.

For Treasurer,
S. W. HAGER,
of Boyd.

For Secretary of State,
C. BRECK HILL,
of Clark.

For Supt. Pub. Instruction,
H. V. McCHESNEY, of Livingston.

For Commissioner of Agriculture,
ION B. NALL, of Jefferson.

For Railroad Commissioner,
J. FLETCHER DEMPSEY, of Hopkins County.

FOR CITY COUNCILMAN.

We are authorized to announce Martin W. Davis as a candidate for the office of City Councilman from the First Ward, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce James West as a candidate for the office of City Councilman from the Third Ward, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce G. D. Dalton as a candidate for re-election to the office of Councilman from the Fourth Ward, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce Frank L. Walter as a candidate for the office of City Councilman from the Fourth Ward, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce J. T. Wall as a candidate for re-election to the office of City Councilman from the Sixth Ward, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce A. J. Reader (Jack R.) as a candidate for Councilman from the Seventh Ward, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce Joe N. Fowright, as a candidate for the office of City Councilman from the Seventh Ward, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce J. H. Eggleston as a candidate for the office of City Councilman from the seventh ward, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Later reports from the Puerto Rico hurricane give the total deaths at 1,500 and the injured at 3,000.

A thirteen-year-old boy was electrocuted on top of a telegraph pole while watching a baseball game at

Elsewhere in to-day's issue will be found a card from Mr. Jas. B. Allensworth in which he declines to become a candidate for representative, in response to a call signed by nearly every Democratic voter in the town of Lafayette. Mr. Allensworth is a lawyer of ability and a gentleman of wide popularity, especially in the Southern portion of the county where his acquaintance is very general. His professional engagements are such that he cannot enter into a political contest, but he is earnestly and strongly for the state ticket and will probably be heard upon the stump later in the campaign.

Edwin R. Settle is a coming young man in Owensboro. His speech before the Goebel club last night was admirable.—Owensboro Messenger.

Mr. Settle is a talented young lawyer who began the practice of his profession in this city. He is a son of Rev. H. C. Settle, of Bowling Green, and is a brother-in-law of Jno. S. Rhea.

The Democratic Headquarters will be moved to the Galt House in Louisville to-day. Rooms 102, 103, 104 and 108 have been secured for the purpose. Two of these rooms were used by Senator Goebel during the convention. They are admirably located on the First street side of the building, on the first floor.

Gov. Brown admits that he would have accepted the nomination of the Louisville convention upon a platform endorsing the election law. Failing to get the nomination he desired, he is now speaking against the plank in the platform demanding honest elections.

Theodore Hallam ought to pray to be delivered from his friends. The very next day after Goebel described his face as being "similar to a cankerous beefsteak" the Louisville Post printed Hallam's picture face and all. And the Post claims to be friendly to Hallam.

Jno. R. McLean, editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, was nominated for Governor of Ohio on the first ballot over several opponents. He is young, popular, able and rich and if anybody can redeem Ohio McLean is the man to do it. Bryan will help him in his fight.

A special election was held in Bland's old district Tuesday and Dorsey W. Shackelford, Democrat, was elected over W. J. Vershall, Republican, by 3200 majority. The Republicans attempted to capture the district with boodle, but the majority is about as usual.

Last Monday a man went into a book store in Hopkinsville and paid $1.20 for a school book. In Indiana he could have bought the same book for 66 cents. A vote against Goebel means a continuance of high prices for school books.

State Senator Wm. Clark was a participant in a bloody street fight in London, Ky., a few days ago and was shot two or three times. He and another man fought James Hayes and his three sons. One of the Hayes boys was fatally shot.

The Taylor campaign seems to be dragging on the ground early in the campaign. More than 100 Democratic speeches have already been made, while the Republicans have just begun to announce a few scattering appointments.

John R. McLean is running for Governor of Ohio on a platform endorsing Bryan. This is answer enough to the lie that McLean is against Bryan.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tubes. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Senator Goebel and Capt. James Blackburn have announced the following additional joint appointments:

At Louisa, Lawrence county, Thursday, September 14.
At Paintsville, Johnson county, Friday, September 15.
At Prestonburg, Floyd county, Saturday, September 16.
At Pikeville, Pike county, Monday, September 18.
At Hindman, Knott county, Wednesday, September 20.
At Salyersville, Magoffin county, Friday, September 22.
At West Liberty, Morgan county, Saturday, September 23.

At Princeton Tuesday, Roaring Bill Sweeney and Beefsteak Hallam, in a county of 20,000 population, drew 200 people, according to the count of their own organs. Goebel and Blackburn will speak at Princeton next Wednesday, and the Democrats will turn out in numbers sufficient to give the lie to the charge that Caldwell county will not do her full duty in November.

Senator Blackburn will be absent from the state for ten days this month, but will return in time to speak with Goebel at Versailles September 25. The last week in the month they will return to Western Kentucky and speak here about September 27.

Nute Tucker, a fourteen-year-old white boy, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded by Joe Jones, whose watermelon patch he was raiding with a crowd of boys at Fulton, Ky.

Mt. Sterling negroes are trying to call Taylor out on the separate coach law. They are threatening to bolt over their inability to get an expression from him.

Has anybody heard of any Democrat of national prominence who is willing to speak against Goebel and Blackburn and the rest of the Democratic ticket?

Yokohama, Japan, had one of the great fires of the century August 12. A square mile of buildings were destroyed and 160 lives lost.

COUNTY SCHOOLS.

Where the Teachers are Holding School This Fall.

- 1 Long, David Y. Keith, Crofton.
- 2 Kelly, R. A. Cook, Kelly.
- 3 Macedonia, Miss Minnie Brasher, Crofton.
- 4 Pleasant Grove, J. W. Morgan, Crofton.
- 5 Number Five, W. E. Gray, Crofton.
- 6 Consolation, Miss Ollie M. Rogers, Era.
- 7 East, A. L. Dukes, Larkin.
- 8 Cannon, Miss Maude C. Purcell, Pon. Ky.
- 9 Pleasant Green, Lewis Oates, Hopkinsville.
- 10 Newstead.
- 11 Pembroke, R. T. Holland, and Miss Louise McClanahan, Pembroke.
- 12 Dade.
- 13 Pisgah, Miss Emma Leigh Price, Sinking Fork.
- 14 West, Miss Lizzie Owen, Kelly.
- 15 Wood's Chapel.
- 16 Foard's, Miss Margaret Wilson, Church Hill.
- 17 Sunny Slope, Miss Ora Barrow, Pee Dee.
- 18 Pee Dee, Miss Lizzie L. Smithson, Pee Dee.
- 19 Bennetts town, U. L. Clardy, Bennetts town.
- 20 Morris, Miss Jennie West, Hopkinsville.
- 21 McKinney, Miss Lillie B. Ray, Johnson's.
- 22 Cone, John Keith, Empire.
- 23 Major, Miss Alice Lander, Hopkinsville.
- 24 Empire, Miss Emma Stevenson, Empire.
- 25 Mitchell, T. B. Walker, Ax.
- 26 Oak Ridge, Orville Goode, Hopkinsville.
- 27 Fruit Hill, Miss Carrie Braacher, Fruit Hill.
- 28 Davis, Miss Myrtle West, Crofton.
- 29 Lafayette, E. M. Murphy and Miss Nettie Ford, Lafayette.
- 30 Perry, H. H. West, Laytons ville.
- 31 Walker, Miss Elizabeth N. Edmunds, Pon.
- 32 Cox, L. W. Guthrie, Bainbridge.
- 33 Fears, Miss Margery Berry, Carl.

Winter Turf Oats

OUR FALL CATALOGUE gives descriptions of these and other Seed Grain, also Clover and Grasses, Vegetable Seeds, Potatoes, Fertilizers, Etc. Write for it and prices of any Seeds required.

WOOD & STUBBS, SEEDSMEN

Louisville, Ky.

- 35 Flat Rock, Miss Bell Parker, Mannington.
- 36 Carroll.
- 37 Hopkinsville, L. McCartney, Supt.; Mrs. E. W. McKenzie, Mrs. R. M. Bramham, Mrs. Mary P. Ware, Mrs. Berta L. Gant, Misses Lella Mills, Julia Arnold, Harriet Dietrich, Susie Rutherford, Lula Graves, Ruth Penn, Mary Walker, Martha Walker, Daisy Rice, Mabel Dryer, Susie Cox, Edna Smythe, Dora Leichhardt, Lotie McDaniel, Adelia Clifton, Hopkinsville.
- 38 Mt. Era, Mrs. Nora Williamson, Cerulean.
- 39 Parker, Mrs. Annie Wright, Mannington.
- 40 Castleberry, Mrs. Nannie P. Keith, Empire.
- 41 Haddock, Miss Ida Brumfield, Hopkinsville.
- 42 Fuller, Mrs. Mattie B. Doss, Sinking Fork.
- 43 Poplar Grove, Henry J. Miller, Haley's Mill.
- 44 Dogwood Chapel, Miss Amanda Taylor, Pon.
- 45 Highway, J. W. Wright, Johnson's.
- 46 Brick Church, Miss Edwin Elliott, Hopkinsville.
- 47 Blue Ruic, Miss Ella Griffin, Kirkmansville.
- 48 Lantrip, Paul Keith, Clardy.
- 49 Johnson, W. H. Cornelius, Sinking Fork.
- 50 Rose, Miss Mary McCulloch, Hopkinsville.
- 51 Bald Knob, J. L. Manire, Haley's Mill.
- 52 Adams, Frank Ashmore, Crofton.
- 53 Crofton, Miss Gertrude Keith and Miss Fairleigh Bowling, Crofton.
- 54 Gracey, Miss Mary Penn, Gracey.
- 55 Church Hill, Jas. M. Calvin, Church Hill.
- 56 Putnam, Cecil W. Johnson, White Plains.
- 57 Mt. Carmel, R. C. Hobson, Hawkins.
- 58 Howell, Miss Hettie Knight, Howell.
- 59 Iron Hill, Miss Berta Hiser, Hopkinsville.
- 60 Boyd, Miss Kate Clark, Pon.
- 61 Sunny Side, Miss Lelia O. Diagnid, Hopkinsville.
- 62 McKnight, Wallis W. Durham, Crofton.
- 63 Mourland, Geo. P. Cranor, Macedonia.
- 64 Mt. Zoar, Miss Florence Buchanan, Kelly.
- 65 Gary.
- 66 Bluff Spring, Miss Hattie Robinson, Haley's Mill.
- 67 Hardy.
- 68 Atkinson, L. E. Price, Red Hill.
- 69 Roberts, J. E. Brown, Crofton.
- 70 Caskey, Miss Ella Shadoin, Hopkinsville.
- 71 Herndon, J. W. Knight, Church Hill.
- 72 Laytons ville, Miss Georgia Fruit, Hopkinsville.
- 73 Concord, Miss Emma Courtney, Hopkinsville.
- 74 Black Jack.
- 75 Garrettsburg, Miss Hallie King, Garrettsburg.
- 76 Bell, Miss Sallie Bailey, Bell.
- 77 Gordon's Field, Miss Laura Ligon, Kennedy.
- 78 Beverly, J. W. Rascoe, Beverly.
- 79 Longview, Miss Dovie Anderson, Longview.
- 80 Elmo, Ernest Murphy, Elmo.
- 81 Salubria, Miss Carrie A. Wood, Pembroke.
- 82 Oak Grove, Miss Mary Stoner, Oak Grove.
- 83 Park Spring, Miss Pearl Jenkins, Kirkmansville.
- 84 Macedonia, E. R. Earle, Macedonia.
- 85 Lunderman, J. W. Barnett, Pembroke.
- 86 Edwards' Mill, Miss Nora Greer, Hopkinsville.
- 87 Vanceville, Miss Addie Brumfield, Hopkinsville.
- 88 West Seminary, Miss Ellen Withers, Kirkmansville.
- 89 Palestine, Miss Maude Blaine, Sinking Fork.
- 90 Ralston, Miss Katie Townes, Hopkinsville.
- 91 Barker's Mill, Mannington.

Give us a call.

Hats.

There is nothing that adds to a man's looks more than a nice stylish new fitting hat.

Throw away your old soiled straw hat and buy an Icycele Brand Straw Hat of us at

1-2 Price

J. T. WALL & CO.

(Successors to Mammoth Clothing & Shoe Co.)

MOAYON'S BIG STORE.

THE FARMERS FRIEND

*****

*****

Just Think —

You can buy a 25c pair of "TOPSY" fast black HOSE warranted FOR 10 CENTS, at Moayon's Big Store. See our show window.

MOAYONS' BIG STORE

Furniture and Undertaking.

We have a fine horse and a full line of Coffins and Caskets, and Undertaking supplies neat and new. We have secured the services of W. N. Ducker, who is ready at all times to serve the public, and we guarantee satisfaction and terms the most liberal. We also have a nice line of which we will sell for less money than can be bought elsewhere.

Furniture, Organs and Sewing Machines,

L. M. ARMSTRONG,
9th St., bet. Main and Virginia.

Read the Kentuckian and get the news

I. C. N. R. R.
— THE GREAT —
Through Trunk Line between the cities of
Cincinnati, Lexington, Louisville,
Evansville, St. Louis,
AND THE CITIES OF
Nashville, Memphis, Mobile,
Orleans, MOBILE.

WITHOUT CHANGE AND SPEED UNPAID

*Pullman Palace Cars for Atlanta, Savannah
Macon, Jacksonville in Florida.*

Connections are made at Guthrie and
Nashville for all points
North, East, South and West.
In Pullman Palace Cars.
EMIGRANTS Seeking homes on the line of this road will receive special rates.
See agents of this company for rates routes &c., or write to
C. P. ATMORE, G. P. & T. A.
Louisville

---

I. C. R. R.
Announcements.

TOURIST The Illinois Central now has on sale and will continue the same un-

100 tourist tickets from the South to a large list of summer resorts in the North. Its fast double daily service to St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati and Louisville enables one to reach quickly and comfortably the mountain resorts of Virginia, the White Mountains and Seaside of New England, the Thousand Islands, the Lake and forest resorts of Michigan,
 Wisconsin and Minnesota, the Hot
 Springs of Arkansas, the Yellowstone
 Park and the resorts of Colorado.

Tickets and full information as to routes in connection with the above can be had of agents of the "Central and connecting lines."

W. M. PERRY, DIV. PAS. AGT., New Orleans.
 W. M. PERRY, DIV. PAS. AGT., Cincinnati.
 SMO. A. SCOTT, DIV. PAS. AGT., Memphis.

H. FARRIS, G. P. A., W. Kellogg, A. G. P.,
 Chicago. Louisville

The ALAMO
 SAN ANTONIO.

FINESCENE

St. Louis & San Francisco O. R. R.
 THROUGH CAR ROUTE BETWEEN
ST. LOUIS
 AND—
 SPRINGFIELD
 JOPLIN PITTSBURG
 WICHITA
 EUREKA SPRINGS
 FT. SMITH PARIS

SAN ANTONIO HOUSTON
GALVESTON

Solid Veneubled Trains with Pullman Sleepers and Bedding Club Cars Heavy Dining Halls

Maps, time tables and full information furnished upon application to:

W. C. KEILLOR,      GEO. T. BIRDAUGH,
Trav. Pass Agent,      Gen'l Pass Agent,
ST. LOUIS, MO.      ST. LOUIS, MO.

GALVESTON BEACH

ALL THE CITIES
OF THE NORTH
NORTH-EAST AND
NORTH-WEST
ARE BEST REACHED VIA - THE Evansville & Terre Haute RR

THROUGH SLEEPING & BUFFET CARS FROM CHICAGO TO
INDIANAPOLIS

EVANSVILLE ROUTE

CHICAGO
INDIANAPOLIS
TERRE HAUTE

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE
Makes the food more delicious and wholesome

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK

Generally Fair

Louisville, Ky., Aug., 31.—(Special).—Generally fair to-night and Friday.

Chicago Grain Market.

Chicago, August 31.—(Special).—Sept. wheat opened at 70½, closed at 69½. Dec. wheat opened at 72½, closed at 71½. Sept. corn opened at 30½, closed at 30½. Cash wheat 69½.

HERE AND THERE.

Cow and calf for sale. Inquire at this office.

Wild Goose Liniment cures rheumatism and neuralgia. 25c at all druggists.

—Dr. E. N. Fruit, Dentist, office over City Bank, Hopkinsville, Ky.

Fine Watch Repairing, Diamond Mounting, &c. Old gold taken in exchange.

R. C. HARDWICK.

Armstrong and Ducker are well equipped for business. They have a new horse, new embalming instruments, and everything new in undertaking supplies. Give us a call, 9th street.

No cure, no pay, that is the way Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil is sold for Barbed Wire Cuts, Burns, Scratches, Cracked Heel, Saddle Galls, Old Sores and all kinds of inflammations on man or beast. Price, 25 cents.

Mr. W. N. Ducker, the oldest and most experienced undertaker in Kentucky, has associated himself with L. M. Armstrong, 9th street, phone 246, 3 rings.

The Hooser building lately gutted by fire at 204 South Main street is being repaired and raised another story. A new front is being put in and the appearance of the property will be greatly improved.

COUNCIL CANDIDATES.

Half a Dozen or More New Ones Announced.

The near approach of the primary and the certainty of Democratic success has caused a good deal of activity among aspirants for the Democratic nominations for City Council. We to-day announce by authority J. T. Wall and G. D. Dalton, of the present board, for re-election. Also M. W. Davis in the First, James West in the Third, Frank L. Waller in the Fourth and J. H. Eggleston and A. J. Reeder in the Seventh ward.

All of these gentlemen are staunch and loyal Democrats, who submit their claims to party action.

LIGHTER SALES.

Very Little Good Tobacco Offered This Week.

The sales of the weed this week were somewhat lighter than those of the past few weeks, owing probably to the inferior quality of the tobacco offered. While the demand for better grades was good, very little of this class was sold, the offering consisting principally of low leaf and lugs. Prevailing prices were satisfactory, however, and rejections were not large. There has been a falling off in receipts, due to the fact that the bulk of the '98 crop has been delivered.

PREACHER INSANE.

Rev. W. W. Duncan Adjudged Insane.

Rev. W. W. Duncan, a superannuated Presbyterian minister, who recently came here from Chattanooga, Tenn., became violently insane Tuesday at the Gooch house and was taken in charge and carried before Judge Casler? a jury adjudged him of unsound mind and he was taken to the Western Asylum. He is 75 years old and a native of Hancock county, Kentucky.

The most delicate constitution can safely use COUSEN'S HONEY OF TAR. It is a sure and pleasant remedy for coughs, loss of voice, and all throat and lung troubles. Price 25 and 50c. R. C. Hardwick.

Mr. W. C. Edmunds returned Tuesday from a visit of three weeks to relatives near Giff Gaff Virginia.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Mrs. S. G. Buckner has returned from Sebree.

Mr. E. B. Bassett left to-day for New York to buy fall goods.

Mr. Mason Bramham has gone to Owensboro to make his future home.

Mrs. Richie Burnett returned Wednesday from a visit to friends in Cadiz.

Dr. R. R. Bourne has returned from a two weeks' sojourn at French Lick Springs.

Misses Josie and Lizzie Burt, of Nashville are the pleasant guests of relatives near Casky.

Mr. Horace Condy has gone to Seattle, Washington, where he secured a lucrative position.

Prof. J. P. B. Allen, of South Kentucky College, who spent the vacation at his home in Georgia, returned to the city this week.

Mr. C. R. Garland returned from Red Boiling Springs, Tenn., Tuesday, where he spent a month. He is much improved in health.

Miss Marian Yates, of Texas, returned home yesterday after a visit of several weeks to her brother, Dr. T. G. Yates.

Miss Margaret Gray, a very attractive little girl of Nashville, Tenn., is visiting Miss Mattie Sue Browning, at Maple Lawn.

Mr. W. B. Neely, the young attorney, has accepted a position with the Milwaukee Harvesting Machine Co., and left a few days ago for Milwaukee.

Mr. Nat Hurt and wife, after spending several days with the family of Mr. R. M. Hurt, returned to their home in Bowling Green Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Landrum, of Mayfield, arrived from Mont Eagle, yesterday. Mrs. Landrum will spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. G. K. Stevens. Mr. Landrum left for Mayfield yesterday afternoon.

Dr. M. W. Williams, Miss Katie Manson, Miss Walker Williams and Mr. J. A. Radford, the last of the Virginia excursionists, returned home Tuesday night, having spent two weeks at Saratoga and Washington. Miss Manson will return to Washington about October to take a post graduate course in a finishing school.

Dr. Austin Bell and his brother, Mr. Douglass Bell, who is just back from a law school, went to Paducah yesterday, on a prospecting tour. They are both popular and talented young men who are seeking locations in their respective professions. Take a drink from the Rock Spring, boys. There is no place better than Hopkinsville.

Two Millions a Year

When people buy, try, and buy again, it means they're satisfied. The people of the United States are now buying Casarets Candy Cigarette at the rate of two million boxes a year and it will be three million before New Year's. It means merit proved, that Casarets are the most delightful bowel regulator for everybody the year round. All druggists 10c, 25c, 50c a box, cure guaranteed.

PRETTY WEDDING.

Hopkinsville Furnished the Groom and Madisonville the Bride.

Mr. J. W. Larkin, of this city, and Miss Anna L. Harvey, of Madisonville, were married at the home of the bride Monday night, Rev. Lovelace, of the Methodist church, officiating.

The groom is the I. C. operator here and chief clerk of the local office and is a very popular young man.

His bride is a pretty and accomplished young lady.

Mr. and Mrs. Larkin arrived in this city on the midnight train and have gone to housekeeping on West Fifteenth street.

TABLET'S BUCKEYE PILE OINTMENT relieves the intense itching. It soothes, heals and cures chronic cases where surgeons fail. It is so experiment; its sales increase through its cures. Every bottle guaranteed. Price, 50 cts. in bottles, tubes 75 cts. R. C. Hardwick.

MONEY GAVE OUT

And Walked to This City—Trip Abandoned.

Mr. Charles Stark and Miss Annie Bruney, a youthful couple living near Madisonville, decided to elope to Springfield, Tenn., Wednesday morning and get married. They came as far as Nortonville on the early train, and finding that their funds were running low, got off the cars and walked to this city, a distance of twenty-five miles. They reached here at a late hour Tuesday night and spent the remainder of the night at the L. & N. depot. Learning that they were still forty miles from Springfield they decided to return to their homes, and left on the 9:45 train yesterday morning. They are both under age, the young man being 19 and the lady 20.

SEEKING LEGAL SEPARATION.

Two More Divorce Suits Filed for a Hearing.

Mrs. Esther Ort, nee Gravens, has brought suit for divorce from her husband, Frank J. Ort.

The petition recites that they were married in Murfreesboro, Tenn., May 18, '97, and lived together until Aug. 30, '98, when defendant abandoned her. She prays for a divorce and asks that she be restored to her maiden name. Mr. Ort now lives in Jackson, Miss.

Ervin Cooley sues for divorce from Kitty Cooley, alleging adultery. They were married in Lebanon, Ky., in April, '99 and only lived together a few months, the petition states.

West Union Meeting.

A protracted meeting will begin at West Union Baptist church, Gracey, the second Sunday in October. The pastor will be assisted by Rev. B. F. Swindler, of Covington, Ky.

WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE is perfectly harmless, and will remove every worm. It is also a tonic, and by its strengthening properties will restore to pale cheeks the rosy hue of health. Price 25 cts. R. C. Hardwick.

Don't Forget

TO EXAMINE OUR LINE OF

School Satchels, Baskets, Tablets, Pencils, Sharpeners, Companions, &c., &c.

W. T. Cooper & CO. Wholesale & Retail GROCERS.

The Season Approaches

WHEN

You May Need a Drill.

We are in the field this year with the two best drills made.

The Superior and the Empire.

We have them made with both Hoe and Discs.

Last year it was impossible to supply the demand for these drills. This year we hope to be prepared, but to make sure it would be well to Put in your orders early.

If you order now you will be sure to get your drill. We shall be pleased to book your order now and you will not be compelled to take an inferior make of drill. We are taking orders every day for FERTILIZERS, Armour, Homestead and National.

Cheap fertilizers are worthless. These are the best. Experience has proven them so. We do not have shipped in any fertilizers unless we have orders for them. Call and specify your requirements. Very Respectfully,

FORBES & BRO. FREE. FREE.

For the remainder of this month all WALL PAPER bought of us at 15 cents a roll and over, will be hung FREE.

The prices are not advanced but we have too many nice papers and want you to reap the benefit. This is a rare opportunity to secure beautiful papers at a small cost.

THOMPSON & BASSETT. Monuments.

It is nonsense to believe that you can buy of some agent as cheap as you can of your home shop, where you get the best marble and granite at the lowest possible price. If you will call and see our work and get our prices you will find yourself well paid for the trouble. Yours truly,

ROBT. W. BROWN, 7th and Virginia Streets, Hopkinsville, Ky.

GANT GOES EAST.

The Popular Merchant Left For New York Yesterday.

Mr. T. L. Gant, of the popular firm of Gant & Slayden, left for New York yesterday afternoon to lay in a stock of new fall goods for his house. This firm is one of the younger ones in dry goods circles, but it is rapidly forging to the front and building up a fine business. Mr. Gant will buy a big stock and Gant & Slayden will strive harder than ever to please, both in goods and prices.

FILLED WITH BIRDSHOT.

Was a Tennessee Negro Who Came Over to Kentucky.

Jim Harvey, a Tennessee negro, came over to Garrettsburg Thursday evening of last week and got into a row with another negro, who lives at Newton Dixon's. The quarrel was about a woman and the Kentucky negro, whose name has not yet been learned, picked up a shotgun loaded with birdshot and fired one barrel at Harvey. The shot took effect in his face and shoulder, inflicting numerous painful though not dangerous wounds. Dr. Haynes attended him.

Forbes & Bro., are building another big addition to their extensive plant to be used for the coopering department. It will front on Eleventh street and will adjoin the old Baptist church property on the east end. Work is progressing rapidly.